Special Agents [redacted] and MAURICE J. ROUSSELL returned the aforementioned key to GREEN at which time he stated someone broke his scale in his office and that there were several things (not described by him) missing that were not recorded on his copy of the inventory.

GREEN was advised by SA [redacted] no FBI Agent who conducted the search broke his scale since it was not moved or intended to be taken in the search nor was any item taken that was not recorded on his inventory. He was apprised the FBI took only what was outlined in the search warrant. b6 b7C

[redacted] Baltimore, Maryland, voluntarily appeared at the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to the advice of a lawyer. [redacted] related that he learned of Multiple Sports News Service (MSNS) of Miami, Florida about [redacted] ago through a tavern owner whom he refused to identify. He was shown a basketball or football sheet put out by the service which contained the address. He wrote to MSNS asking to be put on their mailing list and has been receiving basketball and football schedules weekly and baseball publications monthly ever since.

He cannot recall the name of any publications, but they all have the name of MSNS at the top and a couple of names. The only name he could recall was ROSENTHAL who recently has been writing articles about some sort of discrimination against the Miami Herald. The sheets give schedules of teams playing and in professional games the time of the contest is given. College game times are not given, although it is indicated if a game is a night contest. These sheets do not contain point spreads or odds and he does not obtain information of this type from MSNS or any other type of service.

[redacted] stated that he is not a gambler except that he makes private bets with friends on a particular contest and these are usually in small amounts never exceeding $10.00. His only reason for getting the sheets is to keep a record of scores as a hobby. He stated that he can produce all of the sheets he ever received from MSNS with the scores of games recorded on them.

A QUICK LOOK BACK . . .

The Vikings won 6, lost 2 and tied 1 of their last 9 games to tie Green Bay for second place and missed out on the Playoff Bowl assignment only because the Pack outscored them in the two-game series. . . . Among the year's achievements: (1) the first win ever over Green Bay; (2) a third straight two-game sweep of San Francisco, despite that instantly-famous wrong-way run; (3) victories over both Eastern foes, Pittsburgh and New York; and, most importantly, another improvement in final standing. The Vikes finished 7th in 1961, 6th in 1962, tied for 4th in 1963.

OFFENSIVELY, they had the NFL's best passing game, its second best rushing attack and outscored all but three teams . . . five of the eleven-man unit earned a spot in the Pro Bowl game, and were keys in the West win!

DEFENSIVELY, the club made its most marked improvement, due primarily to a general aging of a unit which had been far and away the least experienced in the NFL. Instead of yielding 400 points or thereabouts, as they did in their first three seasons, they cut it to a creditable 296 last fall . . . and, further, contributed five touchdowns on interceptions and a fumble return.

JUAN MARICHAL

Keeping his place as one of baseball's premier moundsmen in 1964 was San Francisco Giants' righthander Juan Marichal. The fastballing ace, who employs a distinctive high kick during his windup, reached the 20-win level for the second year in a row, besides finishing fourth best in the ERA department.

Juan was 21-8 with a 2.48 earned run average in '64, which compared very favorably with his 1963 performance of 25-8 and a 2.41 ERA. Last season saw Marichal lead the NL in complete games with 22, an improvement by four over '63.

There's no question that Marichal is one of the best hurlers in baseball today, being one of the toughest to hit. He's a fine whiff artist and possesses sharp control,

AMERICAN LEAGUE

BALTIMORE 1:30 MINNESOTA
DETROIT (N) 8:00 CHI.WHITE SOX

Marichal also has a no-hit victory to his credit. That feat came against the Houston Colts on June 15, 1963, as the Giants eked out a 1-0 triumph, scoring in the eighth inning. That season also saw Juan score a 1-0 win over Milwaukee's Warren Spahn in a duel that lasted 16 brilliant innings.

Juan missed several turns last season because of a bad back. Without him, the Giants floundered, which only proves that Marichal is truly one of the San Francisco club's indispensable men.

A ballplayer in a hitting streak will wear the same sweat shirt until it is mildewed.

Babe Ruth always touched second base on his way in from the outfield.

Phil Rizzuto made hte same design on th plate every time he came up to bat.

When going out to play the outfield fro the bench, Joe Dimaggio always stubbed-his toe in some particular place.

WILLIE MAYS

Wonderful Willie Mays' batting average may have dipped under the .300 mark for the first time since 1956, but he still was the National League's premier long-ball swatter during 1964.

Mays captured the senior circuit slugging crown for the fourth time in his career with a .607 mark, far outdistancing runner-up Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs, who finished with .564. Willie also belted 47 homers, to win the home run championship for the third time in his illustrious career. He now has a total of 453 big league homers and has his eyes riveted on the 500 mark, a level reserved for only the elite of the elite.

Willie's career slugging mark is now .589, a senior loop high. The star San Francisco Giants' outfielder set another record during 1964, that of collecting more than 300 total bases for the 11th straight year.

That Mays dominated the National League home run derby is demonstrated by the fact that he finished 14 roundtrippers ahead of his nearest competitor, Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs.

Now 34, Mays has had one of the finest careers in diamond history and is out to add more icing on the cake during the 1965 season which he aims to make one of his best.

SPORTING DIGEST

Dear Fan:

You might be sweltering as you read this but Football is right around the corner. On Friday, August 6th the Cleveland Browns face the All-Stars at Chicago to open the exhibition season.

As usual all exhibition games will be analyzed completely in our Golden editions, which are now being read by more sports fans than any other service can make claim.

Our regular football editions, covering the entire intercollegiate picture will begin publication for the 1965 season on September 11th.... That day Tulsa visits Houston's Astrodome to open the TV scene... Our Football editions carry on until the big championship-bowl edition released around Xmas time.

Last year we picked the Chicago Bears to defeat the All-Stars 17-10. As you know they won 28-17, which was as close as one has to be to be right.

Also - Spet. 11th (in Golden) before one NFL game was played we wrote, "we figure the Cleveland Browns will be good enough to take the Baltimore Colts in this year's championship game". What other publication can make that statement?

This year we started off with a bang when we selected the Eastern All-Stars to beat the West 28-14 in Buffalo on June 26th. As you know that was the score after 59:45 of play. How more accurate can you be?

RE: MULTIPLE SPORTS NEWS SERVICE
ITWI

Enclosed is a copy of a news clipping and letter furnished by [redacted] to RICHARD E. GERSTEIN, State Attorney. The letter is self-explanatory.

This matter dealt with a large bolita raid made by investigators from the Dade County Grand Jury and State Attorney's office. The Sheriff's Office under Dade Sheriff T. A. BUCHANAN was not advised of this raid.

As the Bureau is aware, the FBI in Miami pulled a raid on the gambling operations of JOHN PROKOS and LEFTY ROSENTHAL's operation at Multiple Sports News Service on 11/28/65. We, of course, did not notify either the Sheriff or the local police since this was solely an FBI operation.

The press has been heavy in their critical comments of the local authorities as of late for their failure to investigate and prosecute local gamblers and hoodlums.

[redacted] states in his letter that he was only quipping when he said, "HOOVER wasn't there either," meaning that the State Attorney's office did not notify BUCHANAN or the FBI. This obviously had reference to the fact the FBI had not notified BUCHANAN either when we made our raids on 11/28/65, as mentioned above.

Dear Mr. Frohbose:

The Miami News, in a story dated November 30, attributed to me certain statements concerning a bolita raid conducted by Grand Jury and State Attorney investigators. I was quoted as saying, "Hoover wasn't there either". This statement was taken out of context and was not intended to deprecate the efforts of the Bureau or the Director. It resulted from a series of questions by the reporter as to the reasons why other agencies had not participated in the raid. I pointed out that this was not unusual among law enforcement agencies and to emphasize the point, I quipped that Hoover wasn't there either.

I did not expect the quote to be used and I regret the light manner in which Mr. Hoover's name was treated.

Very truly yours,

[redacted]

Sheriff Says He Had Eye On Bolita House, Too

By VERNE O. WILLIAMS
Reporter of The Miami News

Dade Sheriff T. A. Buchanan said today that he, too, had been investigating a large bolita counting house raided last night by investigators from the Dade Grand Jury and the State Attorney's Office.

"It's very simple," said Buchanan "They got there first."

The door-smashing strike on federal gambling stampholder Charles W Blount was conducted without notification of local law enforcement agencies. It also was the first actual raid initiated through a Dade Grand Jury in recent years.

The arrest of Blount, 49, and two women, along with seizure of adding machines and counting house paraphernalia took place in a two-bedroom home at 13525 NW 2nd Avenue.

Assistant State Attorney Seymour Gelber said the bolita operation was uncovered by a special investigator for the Grand Jury who then asked the aid of the State Attorney's Office.

Gelber said he couldn't comment on the exclusion of the sheriff's office from the raid.

"Hoover wasn't there, either," Gelber joked.

Sheriff Buchanan, who has scoffed at reports of large-scale syndicate gambling in Dade, said he was happy with the raid's success even if he was left out.

"I'm always pleased when any investigative body strikes a blow against crime in any area," said Buchanan. "But in the spirit of law enforcement there's certainly more to be gained when we join together in a team effort."

The preceding grand jury in an interim report lashed local police agencies, including the Sheriff's Office, for failure to suppress bolita and vice.

Blount, who lives at 3301 NE 55th St., and the women clerks, were charged with gambling and operating a lottery. The women were identified as Christine Orlowski, 43, of 1360 NW 135th St., and Ruby Beecher, 39, of 1361 NW 134th St.

Investigators said records seized in a blacked-out room used as a counting headquarters showed a $10,000-a-day operation. The seized tickets indicated they were for a bolita drawing rather than the so-called "numbers" game based on the Cuban or Puerto Rican weekly lottery.

Blount told the raiders that he thought at first they were holdup men and was relieved when they flashed their badges.
